SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong State University volleyball squad has been picked to finish second in a preseason Peach Belt Conference poll of the league's coaches, released today.

The Pirates received three first-place votes and 69 points total, picked to finish behind only Flagler, who received six first-place votes and 77 points total. Coaches could not vote for their own teams in the poll.

Defending PBC champion USC Aiken received the other first-place vote and 67 points total to be picked third, while Lander and Montevallo are picked to tie for fourth after receiving 55 points. Augusta (39), Francis Marion (32), Georgia College (25), Columbus State (22) and UNC Pembroke (9) round out the other teams in the poll.
